HOW TO GET TO THE SHOW

Driving to Rosehill

Rosehill Racecourse is located near the geographic centre of Sydney. James Ruse Drive runs past the Racecourse and connects to major arterial roads - Parramatta Road, Victoria Road and the M4 motorway.

Ample free parking is available off Grand Avenue via Gate 1.

This parking will open at 7.30am on Saturday and 8.30am on Sunday and Monday. There is a short level walk to the entrance of the Grand Pavilion.

Additional carparks have access from James Ruse Drive.

Catching the Train

Catch the train to Clyde station. Transfer to a train on the Carlingford line and get off at the Rosehill station stop and walk the short distance to the Rosehill Racecourse Grand Pavilion.

Catching Public Bus

Catch the M92 Bus that runs from Parramatta Bus Interchange to Sutherland via Bankstown. Get off at the Rosehill station stop and walk the short distance to the Rosehill Racecourse.
